Hutchinson Community Foundation Strategy and Partnership

Shifts in Community Capacity & Conditions*

Hutchinson Community Foundation is particularly interested in supporting the following shifts in community capacity and conditions that would lead toward a more connected, resilient, and thriving community for all people in Reno County.

Please check the boxes next to the areas in which your proposed project may contribute.

Choices

- Increased leverage of community capital and attraction of outside capital
- Increased public-private-philanthropic partnerships
- Increasing diversity on governing boards and of elected leadership
- Increasing number of high-performing local organizations and entrepreneurs
- Increasing number of transformational leaders willing to think adaptively and make smart experiments
- Increasingly inclusive and seamless system of services
- More residents are active in public life and agree on priorities for their shared future
- Stronger and more inclusive social networks

Partnership*

Describe how Hutchinson Community Foundation might consider partnering with you on this project beyond grant funding. What does support look like?

Character Limit: 1500

Coaching*

One of the tools Hutchinson Community Foundation has available to support you, your organization, and your adaptive work is coaching. In this sense, coaching is a process that supports individuals and teams to make more strategic interventions and conscious decisions to lead to even better results. The coach's job is not to tell leaders what to do but to be an ally in the work, ask powerful questions, and help them figure out the best approaches to the challenges and opportunities they face.

Are you interested in exploring whether coaching would be an asset on this proposed project?
